

Yasuhiro Miyata

Executive Vice President for Financial Strategy Operation

Chief Financial Officer and Chief Investment Officer

Yasuhiro Miyata has over thirty years of expertise in fund management, which has included the restructuring of pension operations. He has promoted diversity, equity, and inclusion over thirteen years at five companies, and worked as an Executive Officer at The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited for five years.

■Career summary

1987: Joined The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited.

1988: Seconded to Goldman Sachs New York and JP Morgan Investment Management New York.

Acquired expertise and practical experience in advanced derivatives technologies.

2000: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

Returned to The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company and worked as the Manager for Investment Planning in the Investment Planning Department.

Oversaw the management of 26 trillion yen, established an alternative investment team, and promoted the diversification of investment opportunities.

2003: Seconded to DIAM Co., Ltd. (currently Asset Management One Co., Ltd.)

Assigned the leadership of the Asset Allocation Group and outperformed competitors for five consecutive years.

2009: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

General Manager of the Global Fixed Income Investment Department

2014: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

General Manager of the Group Pension Business Unit

2016: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

Executive Officer, General Manager of the Group Pension Business Unit

2018: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

Executive Officer, Chief General Manager of Investment
Concurrently the General Manager of the Equity Investment
Department

Assumed the role of Chief General Manager of Investment for securities with a value of over 20 trillion yen. Took responsibility for overseeing the implementation of the Stewardship Code, the incorporation of environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) into investment practice, and the exercising of voting rights. Promoted discussions and deepened mutual understanding between issuers and investors.

2019: The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited

Managing Executive Officer, Chief General Manager, Kansai
Market

Concurrently the Chief General Manager of the Kansai
Operations Bureau

Oversaw 10,000 employees (including 5,500 salespeople) as the leader for the Kansai region. Corporate sales exceeded the target of 110%.

2019: Dai-ichi Kogyo Seiyaku Co, Ltd.

Director (outside)

Engaged in strengthening corporate governance, including making proposals on invested capital efficiency and approaches to Mergers & Acquisitions.

March 2022: Tohoku University

Joined Tohoku University, assuming the role of Advisor to the President

October 2022: Tohoku University

Appointed to the role of Executive Vice President for Fundraising and Investment Management