

Miwako Doi

Executive Vice President for Data Strategy and Co-Creation

Auditor, National Institute of Information and Communications
Technology

Executive Director, NARA
Institute of Science and Technology

Member of the Board, Nomura
Research Institute

Outside Director, Subaru
Corporation

(2020.6.10)

Miwako Doi is Auditor of National Institute of Information and Communications Technology, Executive Director of NARA Institute of Science and Technology, Member of the Board of Nomura Research Institute, and Member of the Board of Isetan Mitsukoshi Holdings.

She received her B.E. and M.E. and Ph.D. degrees in 1977, 1979 and 2002 from the Univ. of Tokyo. She joined Toshiba in 1979 and has been a researcher of human interface technology and involved in developing a portable Japanese word processor, a machine translation system, a CG chip for video games, a pedestrian navigation system for mobile phones, and so on over 35 years.

She is an invited professor of Osaka University, Guest Professor of Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology and others.

She got 23 prizes: the Commendation for Science and Technology by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, Award of the Minister of Internal Affairs and Communications, the Achievement Award, the Society Activity Contribution Award, the Best Author award from the Information Processing Society of Japan, a prize of National Commendation for Invention, and so on. She authored and co-authored 13 books, over 300 patents, over 300 technical papers on multimedia information system, human interface design, and so on.