

Nickname for the Next-Generation Synchrotron Radiation Facility

Terms and Conditions:

- All entries must be previously unpublished. Names that have already been registered as trademarks will not be considered.
- The winning nickname, the name of the winner and the prefecture (or country) of residence will be published on the QST website and announced to the media.
- Entries must be submitted with your real name. Entries using a pseudonym will be disqualified.
- All copyrights and other rights related to the use of the adopted nickname will be transferred to QST/PhoSIC free of charge.
- The submitted information will be strictly managed in accordance with the personal information protection rules of QST and PhoSIC, and will be used only for the purpose of screening. The personal information contained in the application will not be disclosed, transferred, or shared with a third party without justifiable reason.
- The winner will receive a commemorative gift (if there are several entries for the chosen nickname, the winner will be decided by lottery).
- The nickname that gets the most submissions will not necessarily be the one that the judges choose.
- By submitting an entry, you agree to the above terms and conditions.
- We will not be able to respond to any inquiries regarding the adoption of the submitted nicknames.

Method of Judging and Announcement:

A judging panel will decide the winning entry. The selected nickname will be posted on the websites of QST and PhoSIC, and will also be announced through the media. The winner will be notified separately.
