

A New Scholarship Program for International Students Enrolling from the 2027 Academic Year

- Under the framework of the International University of Excellence initiative, Tohoku University is advancing educational reforms to strengthen its international competitiveness. To support the recruitment of talented students and to enhance the learning environment, the University is strengthening its support systems.
- As part of these efforts, a new scholarship program will be introduced for international students enrolling from the 2027 academic year onward. The program is designed to provide focused support to high-performing students and to contribute to the continued development of the University's educational and research environment.

■ Program Overview

Eligibility: International students enrolling at Tohoku University from the 2027 academic year onward (Undergraduate programs, Master's programs, and Professional degree programs)

Award: Scholarship covering either the full amount or one-half of the tuition fee

Number of Recipients: Approximately the top one-third of admitted students based on academic performance

Selection Criteria: Determined on the basis of entrance examination results, academic performance after enrollment, and other relevant considerations

※Details of the scholarship program will be announced on the University's website and other official channels once finalized. In addition, the University is reviewing the framework of support for students who enrolled prior to the 2026 academic year.

※The existing tuition exemption program based on financial need will conclude at the end of the 2026 academic year and will transition to this new scholarship program beginning in the 2027 academic year.
